NEW YORK—Fractional advances were registered at the stock market opening Saturday Trading was in good volume for a Saturday and a firm undertone prevailed United States Steel opened at 96 3-8 up 1-8; Baldwin 115, unchanged, Sinclair 34 1-8, unchanged, Lackawanna 86 3-4 up 3-4, General Motors 257, up 3 1-2; U. S Rubber 191 1-4 off 1-4, Mexican Petroleum 168 unchanged, Pan-American 91 1-4 up 1-4, Reading 78 1-2, up 1-2, Vanadium 61, up 2 3-4, Crucible 249 up 1

Announcement of the settlement of the Stutz controversy was made a few minutes before the market opened and therefore had little effect on the opening price levels Within a few minutes after trading started however the whole list began to move forward Steel ran up to 96 7-8, up 1 1-4 over Friday's low Replogle Steel gained 1-4 to 81, and Lackawanna gained 3-8 to 83 3-4, and a few minutes later jumped to 86 Crucible acted contrary to the rest of the list altho the stock was up four points at 240 Selling orders caused it to react to 237

The market in general displayed a firm tone in late dealings General Motors in particular acted well running up to 299 up 15 1-2 Baldwin held around 114 and Republic kept above 96 Crucible turned dull after early softness

The market closed firm
